State of South Caroling Sovernor's Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the combined loss of vision and hearing is one of the most severe of all disabilities, affecting mobility, communication, and access to information for more than a million people in the United States; and
- WHEREAS, Helen Keller was one of the most accomplished, respected, and renowned Americans who was deaf-blind; and
- WHEREAS, people who are deaf-blind live, work, play, and worship in our communities and are productive citizens, neighbors, and family members deserving of respect and opportunities for personal growth; and
- WHEREAS, the 2014 observance of Helen Keller Deaf-Blind Awareness Week calls attention to the abilities and potential of our residents with dual-sensory loss while recognizing Helen Keller as a guiding example of courage, hope, determination, and achievement.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim June 22 28, 2014, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the many contributions made by people who are deaf-blind in communities across the Palmetto State.

NIKKI R. HALEY
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
